

get over the whole janet thing.....if you have janet jackson performing you know it's going to be racy and no one will ever know if it was an accident or not so how can you fine someone for something that was accidental. there are more important issues in this country and it makes me sick that my tax money goes to people in the FCC telling me what is wrong to see and what is ok..... if people don't like what is on tv then they shouldn't watch it....so much for a free damn country
